I. Introduction

THIS is how you work with the file. Add lettrines to beginnings of sections. Units work like this 13.3 km, unit-less numbers like this 12 991.912 41 or this  $1.098\,118 \cdot 10^{-8}$ , and angles like this  $1.781^\circ$ . Put citations only after dots or commas, like this.<sup>1</sup>

II. Conclusions and Future Work

This should get you started. When using in-line citations use Ref. 1. Note that the tilde  $\sim$  is used as protected space.

Acknowledgments

Ingo Gerth would like extend his gratitude to the easter bunny for all the strong support on creating this wonderful template. Thanks so much.
